Editor's Postscript

The cover shows the facial expressions of Hitachi Kokusai Electric Group employees that reflect determination and motivation. As reported in the special report, the photos express our attitude toward creating new products that will lead to the future, under the continuous, daily efforts geared to "engage our customers in considering and responding to the social issue." Have we managed to come up with a concise and spicy CSR Report? Please visit "CSR Information" on our website and give us your comments and impressions.
